

Guy Perrin

Guy is President of Centerpoint Leadership Services. He has over 20 years experience in coaching, consulting, facilitation, counseling, and human resources management. Guy created and facilitates the Leadership Development Forum which is offered in partnership with the SOU School of Business. He also provides coaching to leaders and professionals, and consults with a wide variety of organizations regarding talent management and organizational issues.

As a Senior Consultant for KPMG Consulting in Vancouver, BC, Guy provided career consulting, outplacement services, and developed a practice in executive and professional coaching. He was Labor Relations Manager for two daily newspapers and Industrial Relations Supervisor for a manufacturing company.

Guy is a Licensed Professional Counselor and Certified Employee Assistance Professional. He has a Masters Degree in Counseling Psychology from Antioch Graduate School, a Commerce Degree in Organizational Behavior from the University of British Columbia, and a Certificate in Dispute Resolution from the Justice Institute of BC.